

a sense of national responsibility which will enable America to remain master of her power -- to walk with it in serenity and wisdom, with self-respect and the respect of all mankind; a patriotism which is not short. frenzied outbursts of emotion, but the tranquil and steady dedication of a lifetime.

These are words that are easy to utter, but this is a mighty assignment. For it is often easier to fight for principals than to live up to them.

The Knights are willing to fight for those principals. Through our leadership, the words "under God" were inserted in the Pledge of Allegiance. We are committed to continued unselfish service to our nation.

A man's country is not just a certain area of land. It is a principal. - Walter Scott