Resolution concerning Council Dues at Age 80 and Beyond

Whereas: Approximately 14% of our council's members have reached the age of 80 years. Approximately half are Honorary Life Members.

and Whereas Many of these same knights are on a small fixed income and find it difficult to drive or attend our meetings due to physical demands.

And Whereas: The Knights of Columbus is a fraternity and support of our brother knights in their time of peril and sickness.

Therefore,

Be It Resolved That all these brothers that have reached the age of 80 years, shall be considered Council Honorary Life Members and be excused of all council dues. Star of the Sea Council #7297 will continue to pay any State or Supreme assessments on these brothers.
