

A New Ceremony For A New Era

Our past ceremonies were products of the late 19th century. The three steps worked well in their time. But the men of today are not the men of the 1880s, or even the 1980s. Men of the 2020s don't have the time for three ceremonies or see the need for them. The secrecy is often seen as juvenile, and sometimes, it is even an impediment to joining. The previous process was too often a stumbling block, not a gateway to membership. Today we have an exemplification of our principles that presents, in a clear and convincing way, how charity, unity and fraternity can come together to form a Catholic way of life for today's man and his family. Our course may be new but our destination has not changed.
